

Accessible parking at Adelaide Airport

Easy English

Change to accessible parking at Adelaide Airport

We have some important information for people with disabilities.

We have a place for people with disabilities to get picked up and dropped off.

We call this place the access zone.

You can use the access zone for access taxis and other cars.

The access zone has moved. It used to be near the taxi rank.

The new access zone is outside the Atura Hotel on Atura Circuit.

It is between Atura Hotel and the airport building, also called the Terminal.

How to get to the Terminal

When you arrive at the new access zone, you can enter the Terminal.

This is the Ground floor of the Terminal.

To go to level 2,

- Go inside the Terminal.
You will see

- 2 escalators and

- 2 lifts that can take you up.

On level 2, there is:

- check-in

- security,

- and departures.

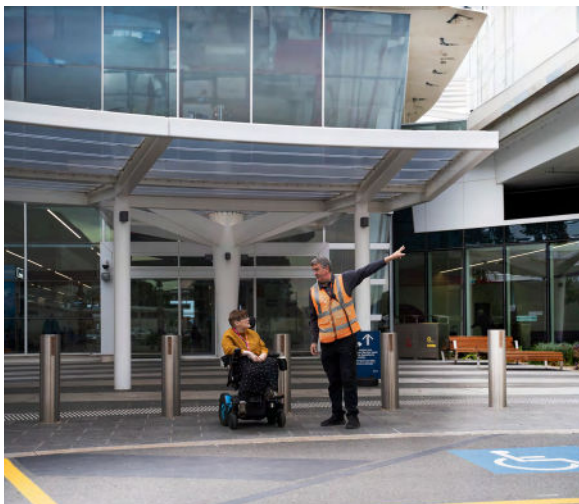

Improvements

The old access zone had only 1 accessible car park.

The new access zone has 3 accessible car parks.

The new access zone has more shade to keep you cool and dry.

What if I go to the old access zone?

If you go to the old access zone by mistake, you can still use it.

Our team will help you and tell you how to use the new access zone next time.

Leaving Adelaide Airport

When you leave, you can use the new access zone or go to the taxi rank.

The taxi rank will be on your left when you leave the Terminal.

You can ask Adelaide Airport staff where the access zone or the taxi rank is.
